AUGER OR CONVEYOR; Travis Seed Cart is what you need!

Seamlessly control your seed transfer from bulk box to planter with a cart that has a low center of gravity and HitchDoc's reliable, self-contained hydraulic system. Travis Seed Carts are designed to perfectly fit your operation's needs, whether you need a poly-cupped auger system or cleated conveyor system. Both systems handle corn, beans, oats, wheat and other small grains with care and ease for a quick, yet safe, move to the planter.
